

Amateur Photographic COMPETITION

The Goulburn Broken National Water Week Committee

invites a range of photographs depicting the theme

“Water Use in the Goulburn Broken Catchment ”

Entries will be judged in the following categories

-Recreational

-Abstract

-Nature

-People

Competition Conditions:

Hard copy entries—Up to 8”x10” size only, no framing or mounting

Entry to be submitted with official entry form (one per entry)

Limit of 2 entries per person

Professional photographers will assist with the selection of winners

ENTRY IS FREE!

Open to residents of the Goulburn Broken Catchment only Photographs of waterways must be local to the Goulburn Broken Catchment region

Winners displayed during National Water Week 18-24 October 2009

Submit your entry to:
Water Week Photography Competition
Goulburn Valley Water
104-110 Fryers St
Shepparton 3630

Title of Entry:.....

Name of Waterway (if included):.....

Name of entrant:.....

Address / school:.....

.....

.....

Ph (Open category only):..... Email:

Category: Recreational Nature Abstract People

Age group: Primary Secondary Open

Entries for the Amateur Photography competition close Friday 18 September.

Every effort will be made to return the images. Entries are submitted with the understanding they may be copied and reproduced by the Goulburn Broken Water Week committee in newspaper articles and other publications or used in displays during National Water Week.

FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT waterweek@gvwater.vic.gov.au or phone JACINTA BURKE 0458 900 261

